

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

LAQUILLA N. STARLING,

Plaintiff,

v.

CREDIT MANAGEMENT, LP,

Defendant.

CIVIL COMPLAINT

CASE NO. 3:17-cv-03512

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

COMPLAINT

NOW comes LAQUILLA N. STARLING (“Plaintiff”), by and through her attorneys, Sulaiman Law Group, Ltd. (“Sulaiman”), complaining as to the conduct of CREDIT MANAGEMENT, LP (“Defendant”), as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this action for damages pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (“FDCPA”) under 15 U.S.C. §1692 et seq., the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”) under 47 U.S.C. §227 et seq., and the Texas Debt Collection Act (“TDCA”) under Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392 et seq. for Defendant’s unlawful conduct.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This action arises under and is brought pursuant to the FDCPA and TCPA. Subject matter jurisdiction is conferred upon this Court by 15 U.S.C §1692, 47 U.S.C §227, 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1337, as the action arises under the laws of the United States. Supplemental jurisdiction exists for the state law claim pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1367.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391 as Defendant conducts business in the Northern District of Texas and a substantial portion the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred within the Northern District of Texas.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff is a 34 year old natural “person,” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39), residing at 212 Durham Street, Apartment B, Commerce, Texas, which lies within the Northern District of Texas.

5. Defendant is a debt collector that offers payment options and payment installments.¹ With a principal office located at 4200 International Parkway, Carrollton, Texas, Defendant is in the business of collecting consumer debts for others throughout the country, including in Texas.

6. Defendant is a “person” as defined by 47 U.S.C. §153(39).

7. Defendant acted through its agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives and insurers at all times relevant to the instant action.

FACTS SUPPORTING CAUSES OF ACTION

8. In approximately January 2017, Plaintiff began receiving calls to her cellular phone, (903) XXX-3321, from Defendant.

9. At all times relevant to the instant action, Plaintiff was the sole subscriber, owner, and operator of the cellular phone ending in 3321. Plaintiff is and has always been financially responsible for the cellular phone and its services.

10. Defendant mainly uses the phone number (855) 657-8583 when placing calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone, but upon belief, it has used other numbers as well.

11. Upon information and belief, the above referenced phone number ending in 8583 is regularly utilized by Defendant during its debt collection activity.

12. Upon answering phone calls from Defendant, Plaintiff experiences a noticeable pause, lasting several seconds in length, before a live representative begins to speak.

13. Upon speaking with Defendant, Plaintiff was informed that it was acting as a debt collector attempting to collect upon a debt (“subject debt”) said to be owed by Plaintiff.

14. During conversations between Plaintiff and Defendant, Defendant would attempt to verify certain information about Plaintiff, including her social security number.

15. Feeling uncomfortable providing this information over the phone to an unknown entity with whom Plaintiff has no direct business relationship, Plaintiff informed Defendant to stop calling her cellular phone.

16. Plaintiff repeated this demand on several of Defendant’s subsequent attempts to gather her sensitive personal information.

17. Despite Plaintiff’s demands, Defendant continued to place phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone seeking collection of the subject debt up until the filing of the instant action.

18. On numerous occasions, Defendant has placed multiple phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone on the same day, with such calls often being placed in short succession.

19. For example, on November 14, 2017, Defendant placed at least three phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone, two of which were placed within minutes of one another.

20. Plaintiff has received not less than 40 phone calls from Defendant since asking it to stop calling.

21. Frustrated over Defendant’s conduct, Plaintiff spoke with Sulaiman regarding her rights, resulting in expenses.

22. Plaintiff has been unfairly and unnecessarily harassed by Defendant's actions.

23. With the goal of specifically addressing Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has expended approximately $60.00 to purchase and maintain an application on her cellular phone to help quell Defendant's calls. However, the communications have continued.

24. Plaintiff has suffered concrete harm as a result of Defendant's actions, including but not limited to, invasion of privacy, aggravation that accompanies collection telephone calls, emotional distress, increased risk of personal injury resulting from the distraction caused by the never-ending calls, increased usage of her telephone services, loss of cellular phone capacity, diminished cellular phone functionality, decreased battery life on her cellular phone, and diminished space for data storage on her cellular phone.

COUNT I – VIOLATIONS OF THE FAIR DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES ACT

25. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 24 as though full set forth herein.

26. Plaintiff is a "consumer" as defined by 15 U.S.C. §1692a(3) of the FDCPA.

27. Defendant is a "debt collector" as defined by §1692a(6) of the FDCPA, because it regularly use the mail and/or the telephone to collect, or attempt to collect, delinquent consumer accounts.

28. Defendant identifies itself as a debt collector, and is engaged in the business of collecting or attempting to collect, directly or indirectly, defaulted debts owed or due or asserted to be owed or due to others. Defendant identifies itself as a debt collector and has been a member of the Association of Credit and Collection Professionals since 2008.²

29. The subject debt is a "debt" as defined by FDCPA §1692a(5) as it arises out of a transaction due or asserted to be owed or due to another for personal, family, or household purposes.

a. Violations of FDCPA §1692c(a)(1) and §1692d

² <http://www.acainternational.org/search#memberdirectory>

30. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692d, prohibits a debt collector from engaging “in any conduct the natural consequence of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of a debt.” §1692d(5) further prohibits, “causing a telephone to ring or engaging any person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously with intent to annoy, abuse, or harass any person at the called number.”

31. Defendant violated §1692c(a)(1), d, and d(5) when it repeatedly called Plaintiff after being notified to stop. Defendant called Plaintiff at least 40 times after she demanded that it stop calling. This repeated behavior of systematically calling Plaintiff’s phone in spite of her demands was harassing and abusive. The frequency and volume of calls shows that Defendant willfully ignored Plaintiff’s pleas with the goal of annoying and harassing her.

32. Furthermore, Defendant relentlessly contacted Plaintiff multiple times per day on numerous occasions, with such calls often being placed in short succession. Placing such voluminous calls on the same day in short succession constitutes conduct causing a telephone to ring repeatedly or continuously with the intent to annoy, abuse, and harass Plaintiff into making payment.

33. Defendant was notified by Plaintiff that its calls were not welcomed. As such, Defendant knew that its conduct was inconvenient and harassing to her.

b. Violations of FDCPA § 1692e

34. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692e, prohibits a debt collector from using “any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt.”

35. In addition, this section enumerates specific violations, such as:

“The use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.” 15 U.S.C. §1692e(10).

36. Defendant violated §1692e and e(10) when it used deceptive means to collect and/or attempt to collect the subject debt. In spite of the fact that Plaintiff demanded that it stop contacting her, Defendant continued to contact her via automated calls. Instead of putting an end to this harassing behavior, Defendant systematically placed calls to Plaintiff's cellular phone in a deceptive attempt to force her to answer its calls and ultimately make a payment. Through its conduct, Defendant misleadingly represented to Plaintiff that it had the legal ability to contact her via an automated system when it no longer had consent to do so.

c. Violations of FDCPA § 1692f

37. The FDCPA, pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1692f, prohibits a debt collector from using "unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt."

38. Defendant violated §1692f when it unfairly and unconscionably attempted to collect on a debt by continuously calling Plaintiff over 40 times after being notified to stop. Attempting to coerce Plaintiff into payment by placing voluminous phone calls without her permission is unfair and unconscionable behavior. These means employed by Defendant only served to worry and confuse Plaintiff.

39. As pled in paragraphs 20 through 24, Plaintiff has been harmed and suffered damages as a result of Defendant's illegal actions.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, LAQUILLA N. STARLING, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in her favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned bodies of law;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff statutory damages of $1,000.00 as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(2)(A);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(1);

- d. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees as provided under 15 U.S.C. §1692k(a)(3); and
- e. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT II – VIOLATIONS OF THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

40. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 39 as though fully set forth herein.

41. The TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(iii), prohibits calling persons on their cellular phone using an automatic telephone dialing system (“ATDS”) without their consent. The TCPA, under 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1), defines an ATDS as “equipment which has the capacity...to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a random or sequential number generator; and to dial such numbers.”

42. Defendant used an ATDS in connection with its communications directed towards Plaintiff’s cellular phone. The noticeable pause, lasting several seconds in length, which Plaintiff experienced during answered calls from Defendant is instructive that an ATDS was being utilized to generate the phone calls. Moreover, the nature and frequency of Defendant’s contacts, including multiple phone calls on the same day placed in short succession, points to the involvement of an ATDS.

43. Defendant violated the TCPA by placing at least 40 phone calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone using an ATDS without her consent. Any consent that Plaintiff may have given to the originator of the consumer Debt, which Defendant will likely assert transferred down, was specifically revoked by Plaintiff’s demands that it cease contacting her.

44. The calls placed by Defendant to Plaintiff were regarding collection activity and not for emergency purposes as defined by the TCPA under 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(A)(i).

45. Under the TCPA, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B), Defendant is liable to Plaintiff for at least $500.00 per call. Moreover, Defendant's willful and knowing violations of the TCPA should trigger this Honorable Court's ability to triple the damages to which Plaintiff is otherwise entitled to under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(C).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, LAQUILLA N. STARLING, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in her favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Awarding Plaintiff damages of at least $500.00 per phone call and treble damages pursuant to 47 U.S.C. §§ 227(b)(3)(B)&(C);
- c. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees; and
- d. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.

COUNT III – VIOLATIONS OF THE TEXAS DEBT COLLECTION ACT

46. Plaintiff restates and realleges paragraphs 1 through 45 as though fully set forth herein.

47. Plaintiff is a "consumer" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(1).

48. Defendant is a "debt collector" and a "third party debt collector" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(6) and (7).

49. The subject debt is a "consumer debt" as defined by Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.001(2) as it is an obligation, or alleged obligation, arising from a transaction for personal, family, or household purposes.

a. Violations of TDCA § 392.302

50. The TDCA, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.302(4), states that "a debt collector may not oppress, harass, or abuse a person by causing a telephone to ring repeatedly or continuously, or making repeated or continuous telephone calls, with the intent to harass a person at the called number.”

51. Defendant violated the TDCA when it continued to call Plaintiff’s cellular phone at least 40 times after she notified it to stop calling. This repeated behavior of systematically calling Plaintiff’s phone despite her demands was oppressive, harassing, and abusive. The repeated contacts were made with the hope that Plaintiff would succumb to the harassing behavior and ultimately make a payment. The frequency and volume of calls shows that Defendant willfully ignored Plaintiff’s pleas with the goal of annoying and harassing her.

52. Furthermore, Defendant relentlessly contacted Plaintiff multiple times per day on numerous occasions, with such calls often being placed in short succession. Placing such voluminous calls on the same day in short succession constitutes conduct causing a telephone to ring repeatedly or continuously with the intent to annoy, abuse, and harass Plaintiff into making payment in violation of the TDCA.

53. Upon being told to stop calling, Defendant had ample reason to be aware that it should cease its harassing campaign of collection phone calls. Nevertheless, Defendant consciously chose to continue placing calls to Plaintiff’s cellular phone.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, LAQUILLA N. STARLING, respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter judgment in her favor as follows:

- a. Declaring that the practices complained of herein are unlawful and violate the aforementioned statutes and regulations;
- b. Entitling Plaintiff to injunctive relief pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(a)(1).
- c. Awarding Plaintiff actual damages, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(a)(2).
- d. Awarding Plaintiff punitive damages, in an amount to be determined at trial, for the underlying violations;

- e. Awarding Plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney fees, pursuant to Tex. Fin. Code Ann. § 392.403(b);
- f. Awarding any other relief as this Honorable Court deems just and appropriate.
